

CAROLYN LORD - ARTIST BIO

California Artist, Carolyn Lord was introduced to the bold color and strong design of the California Watercolor Style while in college, and now has integrated aspects of Tonalism and Impressionism into her current work.

Lord is a Signature member of the National Watercolor Society; California Watercolor Association, California Art Club; and American Women Artists.

Her paintings are represented in California, Utah, and Colorado galleries, and she has exhibited in regional and national shows, participated in juried and invitational plein air events, including Frank Bette Plein Air Paint Out, Sonoma Plein Air, and Mendocino Open Paint Out. Closer to Santa Clara Valley, she has perennially exhibited in the Triton Museum's Watercolor Triennial and Triton Salon; and Santa Cruz Art League's Statewide Landscape Exhibition, winning Best of Show in 2009, and served as Judge in 2021
