

Alexis Lavine, NWS – Bio

Alexis Lavine has devoted the last two decades to watercolor painting and teaching. Her award winning paintings have been included in numerous juried and gallery exhibitions, and they hang in private and corporate collections throughout the country, as well as overseas. Alexis divides her time between painting in her studio and painting outdoors on location. She has recently been designated as one of Watercolor Artist Magazine's "Ones to Watch." This is an accolade of great distinction, as is her signature membership in the National Watercolor Society!

Alexis is an enthusiastic art instructor, who teaches painting and drawing classes and workshops. She gives her students a sound background in technique and esthetics, encourages them to express their individuality through their art, and helps them to relax and enjoy their artistic pursuits.

Alexis' watercolors are full of luminous color, rich shadows, and beautifully drawn shapes. With meticulous attention to composition, she crafts paintings that are descriptive and yet expressive, realistic and yet abstract. She lives and paints in central North Carolina.

Professional Affiliations

National Watercolor Society, signature member

Transparent Watercolor Society of America, signature and life member

Watercolor USA Honor Society, signature member

Watercolor West, signature member

North East Watercolor Society, signature member

Southern Watercolor Society, signature member

Baltimore Watercolor Society, signature and life member

Watercolor Society of North Carolina, signature member

Piedmont Outdoor Painting Society, signature member

Education

B.A. in Studio Art, University of Maryland

M.A. in Medical Illustration - Johns Hopkins University